RELATIONSHIP EXPERT +
CERTIFIED MARRIAGE & FAMILY COUNSELOR

In a world where failing marriages and toxic relationships have become the societal norm, Relationship Expert Love McPherson stands as a beacon of hope, confidently declaring, "I was born for this." Love is a passionate author, captivating speaker, and engaging media personality on a mission to impact generations and heal relationships by teaching individuals how to love better. In 2010, she founded her relationship coaching company, Love Infinity, Inc., which has enabled her to make a global impact, speaking to national and international audiences as well as various small businesses and non-profit organizations. Love brings over two decades of experience as a mental health professional to her extensive and diverse audience.

Love has been a recurring guest on the #1 news broadcast in Chicago, WGN TV, and has appeared on Bravo TV's Real Housewives of Atlanta, Windy City Live on ABC Network, and TV ONE Network. Her expertise has also been featured on media outlets such as NBC, VH1, BRIDES Magazine, People Magazine, Sarah Jakes Roberts' Woman Evolve Podcast, Joyce Meyer's Talk It Out Podcast, and Dear Future Wifey Podcast. In 2025, she received the "Woman of Excellence" Award by the Chicago Defender, and in 2026 received the "Women in Leadership" award by Mayor Brandon Johnson and the Women in Leadership Host Committee.

Love considers her greatest success to be her 43-year marriage to Anthony McPherson. Together, they have two beautiful daughters: Tiffany McPherson, who serves as her Executive Assistant and Brand Manager, and Christa McPherson. When Love isn't on the speaking circuit or conducting private counseling sessions, she can be found enjoying dates with her husband or spending quality time with her family.
