

LOVE MC PHERSON,

RELATIONSHIP EXPERT
OF LOVE INFINITY, INC.

In a world where failing marriages and toxic relationships have become the societal norm, Relationship Expert, Love McPherson is the voice of hope that says, “I was born for this.” She is a passionate author, captivating speaker, podcaster, and engaging media personality on a mission to impact generations and heal relationships by teaching individuals how to love better.

In 2010, she founded her relationship coaching company, Love Infinity, Inc., which has allowed her the opportunity to make a global impact speaking to national and international audiences such as T.D. Love says her greatest success by far is being the wife to Anthony McPherson, her husband of 37 years and Vice President of Love Infinity, Inc. Together they have two beautiful daughters, Tiffany McPherson, her Executive Assistant and Brand Manager, and Christa McPherson. When Love isn't on the speaking circuit or conducting private coaching sessions, you can find her dating her husband or enjoying family time.

PERSONAL PROFILES

LOVE INFINITY, INC.

The birth of Love Infinity, Inc. ("Love Infinity") was ignited by a passion to restore a failing union of love that affects the state of our families, communities, systems, and nations at large. In 2010, Love McPherson decided the need had to be treated, and it was time to use her wide range of coaching, speaking, clinical, and marital experience to create a company, alongside her husband Tony, that would love and transform relationships around the world. Since then Love McPherson has been a recurring guest on WGN Chicago TV, WCIU The Jam TV, WGN Radio 720AM, iHeartRadio's Inspiration 1390AM, and the Willie Moore Jr. Show ATL sharing her relationship wisdom. Love is also a coveted keynote speaker and seminar facilitator. She is just as effective speaking to crowds of thousands as she is facilitating small round circle groups.
